

I listen to FM K-LOVE every day. If K-LOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming it would be a significant loss to me and my family. The service provided by K-LOVE is strongly in the public interest because they can be more efficient than a local station and can provide more and better programming without commercials.